Your birthday i love you twice

YOUR BIRTHDAY I LOVE YOU TWICE

I love you very much my lovely wife
More than other days sweet half life
Soon is your birthday as you know
You are the star of my life show
You are the blowing of warm wind
You are more sweet than sun I think
You are the my past I keep in mind
And my sweet moments of all kind
Your birthday I will love you twice
Like time when we made love nice
Seeing the rainbow above our heads
Seeing the stars above our beds
Feeling the deep love in our hearts
Love once love twice love starts
Love moments when we feeling high
I close them all in my head and hide
To give you them all on your birthday
In every new year new month or day
Every september june april or may
I love your birthday I love you twice
Doing all things so sweet and nice
Your hands are blessing of the god
Body first wonder nothing to add
Your eyes I m deeply lost in them
Sweet lips I kiss them hard and than
Feeling so high in our blue skies
Feeling so high in coloured stars
Feeling so good here on earth
In our love every moment worth
Your birthday I will love you twice
Twice I will tatoo you with the true
Twice hidden faces in one slice
Twice masks you wear are not you
Your birthday I will hate you twice
You are the black whole of my past
You are the frozen univers I must
Forget them both and beware twice
